Attached is a photo of what was shoveled. A section of sidewalk that leads to the dead end of Derby Street. No one ever walks to the dead end of the street. We had our main sidewalk on Lexington Way and the approach shoveled just not the section of Derby. The 1st year we lived here we shoveled the sidewalk even tho the street was never plowed. When they started plowing the street, someone in a city truck made mention that it was not a big deal if the side wasn't shoveled since its a dead end. So for 3 years we haven't shoveled and this year we had an inch of snows and get ticketed.

Thanks,
Sue

Dear to whom it may concern,

I heard from my neighbor about the city council decision on the December 12, 2017 snow removal fines from the January 4th 2018 meeting, that were paid might be reimbursed. And also needed to send or drop a letter such as this. Yes I would like my $95.00 back if that is the decision to reimburse. Also included a copy of the original bill.

Thanks for your time,

William Bagneski
