§ 126-1. Animals and fowl not to run at large.

No person having in his possession or under his control any animal or fowl shall allow the same to run at large within the City.

§ 126-2. Keeping of poultry and livestock.

[Amended by Ord. No. 96-1]

No person shall keep or maintain any poultry or fowl or any livestock, such as horses, cattle, sheep or goats, in any zoning district except agricultural districts, except that ponies and horses may be permitted in any residential district as a conditional use provided that the residential parcel contains at least two acres of land which is designated "floodplain" per animal available for pasture, maintenance or running of said animal, and further provided that any such animals are contained within a fence, no part of which is closer than 200 feet to any residence other than the residence of the owner of the animals.

§ 126-3. Nuisances by pets; removal of excrement.

- A. Pet littering prohibited. No person owning, keeping, possessing or harboring an animal as a pet shall allow such animal to dig upon, soil, defile, defecate on or commit any nuisance on any private or public property.
- B. Repair and removal required. Any person owning or having control of an animal kept as a pet on any property, public or private, which is not owned or occupied by such person shall promptly remove, in a sanitary manner, excrement left by such animal and place it in a proper receptacle or bury the same on property owned or occupied by such person, and, to the extent any such pet may have littered or damaged property as described in Subsection A above, the person having control of said animal shall immediately repair and restore the area damaged by such pet.
- C. Means of transmittal required. Any person causing or permitting an animal to be on any property, public or private, not owned or occupied by such person shall have in his immediate possession a device or object suitable for removal of excrement (pooper
