

Waterloo, Wisconsin

Top 10 Reasons to Relocate

Waterloo is a great destination for companies large and small. Some of the most compelling reasons to explore the opportunities that Waterloo can offer your business are highlighted below. Call today for a personal tour of the community. 920-478-3025.

1. Competitive utility rates and abundant power and water capacity.
2. Over $5 million in public and $8 million in private infrastructure investment in the past decade
3. Access to a regional workforce of over 175,000 pulling from two metropolitan regions
4. Readily available fiber optic lines redundant capabilities at key locations
5. Business park land and municipal incentives available for new development
6. Newly redeveloped Maunasha Business Center offers business and workforce training in partnership with Madison College in the heart of Waterloo.
7. Supportive entrepreneurial environment – local zoning supports home-based businesses in residential areas throughout the community.
8. Low cost of living and quality schools help local companies recruit and retain workers.
9. Close and convenient Interstate and Highway access to south central and eastern Wisconsin destinations
10. Responsive and responsible government with a personal approach to addressing the needs of corporate and residential citizens